Mark Bale litigates civil matters with an emphasis on business, commercial, liability, real estate and construction issues. He regularly handles complex matters in state, federal and bankruptcy courts throughout California. Mark also advises clients in a variety of business, real estate, and employment/labor matters. Mark has represented a broad range of entity clients including financial institutions and lenders, commercial and residential property owners, real estate developers, construction management companies, general contractors, subcontractors, insurance companies, and government entities. Mark also counsels businesses of all sizes on legal compliance in all aspects of business operations.

Mark gained significant business development and strategic management experience in Internet and emerging technology fields with two San Diego technology companies from 1999 to 2003. As a result, Mark has a unique and valuable perspective on the intersection of the business world and his legal practice.

Mark has served as the Athletic Committee Chair on the Board of Directors of the Foundation of La Jolla High School and served on the Board of Directors of the La Jolla Youth Baseball organization. He is an avid sports fan and a music enthusiast who enjoys traveling and adventures with his wife and two sons.
