Ross Schwartz represents companies of all sizes in virtually every industry. Ross has extensive experience in mergers, acquisitions, divestures, corporate reorganizations and conversions, trademarks, corporate finance, complex loan transactions, venture capital transactions, corporate governance, securities, employment law matters, real estate acquisitions and leasing, including landlord tenant matters. Furthermore, Ross also represents individual business executives on employment and compensation matters and families in estate planning matters.

It is this diverse background of representation that allows Ross to take experience from one business area and apply it to others, so that Ross and his clients can quickly identify their goals and achieve positive results.

Ross is also the firm's representative toLegus, which is a national and international group of law firms that meet several times a year, which allows the participants to know each other on a personal basis. This commitment by our firm allows our clients immediate access to attorneys throughout the United States and the World.

In addition, Ross serves as the firm's managing partner.

Ross has received numerous awards, including being selected by The San Diego Daily Transcript as one of 10 noteworthy San Diego County attorneys. For over 10 years, Ross has participated in the CEB annual Recent Developments in Business Law presentations. Ross and his wife reside in Poway and look forward to frequent visits from their daughters who live further north.
